§404.938

place of the hearing, include, but are not limited to, the following:

- (1) You have attempted to obtain a representative but need additional time:
- (2) Your representative was appointed within 30 days of the scheduled hearing and needs additional time to prepare for the hearing;
- (3) Your representative has a prior commitment to be in court or at another administrative hearing on the date scheduled for the hearing:
- (4) A witness who will testify to facts material to your case would be unavailable to attend the scheduled hearing and the evidence cannot be otherwise obtained;
- (5) Transportation is not readily available for you to travel to the hearing;
- (6) You live closer to another hearing site: or
- (7) You are unrepresented, and you are unable to respond to the notice of hearing because of any physical, mental, educational, or linguistic limitations (including any lack of facility with the English language) which you may have.

§ 404.938 Notice of a hearing before an administrative law judge.

After the administrative law judge sets the time and place of the hearing, notice of the hearing will be mailed to the parties at their last known addresses, or given by personal service, unless you have indicated in writing that you do not wish to receive this notice. The notice will be mailed or served at least 20 days before the hearing. The notice of hearing will contain a statement of the specific issues to be decided and tell you that you may designate a person to represent you during the proceedings. The notice will also contain an explanation of the procedures for requesting a change in the time or place of your hearing, a reminder that if you fail to appear at your scheduled hearing without good cause the ALJ may dismiss your hearing request, and other information about the scheduling and conduct of your hearing. If you or your representative do not acknowledge receipt of the notice of hearing, we will attempt to contact you for an explanation. If you tell us that you did not receive the notice of hearing, an amended notice will be sent to you by certified mail. See §404.936 for the procedures we will follow in deciding whether the time or place of your scheduled hearing will be changed if you do not respond to the notice of hearing.

[50 FR 21438, May 24, 1985, as amended at 51 FR 303, Jan. 3, 1986]

§ 404.939 Objections to the issues.

If you object to the issues to be decided upon at the hearing, you must notify the administrative law judge in writing at the earliest possible opportunity before the time set for the hearing. You must state the reasons for your objections. The administrative law judge shall make a decision on your objections either in writing or at the hearing.

§ 404.940 Disqualification of the administrative law judge.

An administrative law judge shall not conduct a hearing if he or she is prejudiced or partial with respect to any party or has any interest in the matter pending for decision. If you object to the administrative law judge who will conduct the hearing, you must notify the administrative law judge at your earliest opportunity. The administrative law judge shall consider your objections and shall decide whether to proceed with the hearing or withdraw. If he or she withdraws, the Associate Commissioner for Hearings and Appeals, or his or her delegate, will appoint another administrative law judge to conduct the hearing. If the administrative law judge does not withdraw, you may, after the hearing, present your objections to the Appeals Council as reasons why the hearing decision should be revised or a new hearing held before another administrative law judge.

§404.941 Prehearing case review.

(a) General. After a hearing is requested but before it is held, we may, for the purposes of a prehearing case review, forward the case to the component of our office (including a State agency) that issued the determination being reviewed. That component will decide whether the determination may be revised. A revised determination may be wholly or partially favorable to you. A prehearing case review will not delay the scheduling of a hearing unless you agree to continue the review and delay the hearing. If the prehearing case review is not completed before the date of the hearing, the case will be sent to the administrative law judge unless a favorable revised determination is in process or you and the other parties to the hearing agree in writing to delay the hearing until the review is completed.

- (b) When a prehearing case review may be conducted. We may conduct a prehearing case review if—
 - (1) Additional evidence is submitted;
- (2) There is an indication that additional evidence is available;
- (3) There is a change in the law or regulation; or
- (4) There is an error in the file or some other indication that the prior determination may be revised.
- (c) Notice of a prehearing revised determination. If we revise the determination in a prehearing case review, we shall mail written notice of the revised determination to all parties at their last known address. We shall state the basis for the revised determination and advise all parties of their right to request a hearing on the revised determination within 60 days after the date or receiving this notice.
- (d) Revised determination wholly favorable. If the revised determination is wholly favorable to you, we shall tell you in the notice that the administrative law judge will dismiss the hearing request unless a party requests that the hearing proceed. A request to continue must be made in writing within 30 days after the date the notice of the revised determination is mailed.
- (e) Revised determination partially favorable. If the revised determination is partially favorable to you, we shall tell you in the notice what was not favorable. We shall also tell you that the hearing you requested will be held unless you, the parties to the revised determination and the parties to the hearing tell us that all parties agree to dismiss the hearing request.

§ 404.942 Prehearing proceedings and decisions by attorney advisors.

- (a) General. After a hearing is requested but before it is held, an attorney advisor in our Office of Hearings and Appeals may conduct prehearing proceedings as set out in paragraph (c) of this section. If upon the completion of these proceedings, a decision that is wholly favorable to you and all other parties may be made, an attorney advisor, instead of an administrative law judge, may issue such a decision. The conduct of the prehearing proceedings by the attorney advisor will not delay the scheduling of a hearing. If the prehearing proceedings are not completed before the date of the hearing, the case will be sent to the administrative law judge unless a wholly favorable decision is in process or you and all other parties to the hearing agree in writing to delay the hearing until the proceedings are completed.
- (b) When prehearing proceedings may be conducted by an attorney advisor. An attorney advisor may conduct prehearing proceedings if you have filed a claim for benefits based on disability and—
- New and material evidence is submitted;
- (2) There is an indication that additional evidence is available;
- (3) There is a change in the law or regulations; or
- (4) There is an error in the file or some other indication that a wholly favorable decision may be issued.
- (c) Nature of the prehearing proceedings that may be conducted by an attorney advisor. As part of the prehearing proceedings, the attorney advisor, in addition to reviewing the existing record, may—
- (1) Request additional evidence that may be relevant to the claim, including medical evidence; and
- (2) If necessary to clarify the record for the purpose of determining if a wholly favorable decision is warranted, schedule a conference with the parties.
- (d) Notice of a decision by an attorney advisor. If the attorney advisor issues a wholly favorable decision under this section, we shall mail a written notice of the decision to all parties at their last known address. We shall state the basis for the decision and advise all
